2019 4-H Project Record & Portfolio winners

4-H Project Records and Portfolios are an essential part of North Carolina 4-H. They focus on capturing a 4-H'er's growth and learning over their time in 4-H.

This practice helps build essential life skills, such as record keeping, organization and writing. Project records are done on a yearly basis and can be completed on multiple different topics which youth select.

This opportunity allows youth to explore new topics and help them discover their passions, guiding them in determining what they would like to do when they grow up.

A portfolio is three years of work and record-keeping in one project area. These require diligent work from 4-H'ers and detailed record-keeping. Judging of the 2019 Program Year Project Records and Portfolios were delayed this year due to restrictions presented by Covid-19. Three individuals from Yancey County: Benjamin Varney, Derek Heidenfelder and Oak Klein competed at the state level for Project Records.

Derek Heidenfelder won Gold for his Project Record in the Family and Consumer Sciences category, he also won Bronze for his Project Record in the Science & Technology category.

Benjamin Varney won Gold for his Project Record in the Healthy Lifestyles category.

Oak Klein won Silver for his Project Record in the Plant Science category.

Four individuals from Yancey County: Benjamin Varney, Derek Heidenfelder, Kyler Glover and Jeremy Heidenfelder competed at the state level for Portfolios. Each individual won a State Award for their Portfolios.

Benjamin Varney won Silver for his Portfolio in the Family & Consumer Sciences category, and won Bronze for this Portfolio in the Electric Energy category, also winning first place for the Duke Energy Progress Territorial Award.

Derek Heidenfelder won Bronze for his Portfolio in the Family and Consumer Sciences category.

Kyler Glover won Silver for his Portfolio in the Leadership category.

Jeremy Heidenfelder won Gold for his Portfolio in the Public Speaking & Communications category.

Congratulations to each of these 4-H'ers for their hard work and accomplishments! If you are interested in learning more about 4-H and the youth opportunities available in Yancey County, contact Jordan English.

4-H is North Carolina's largest youth development organization, providing more than 200,000 youth each year with the skills to succeed and improve the world around them. 4-H programs encourage youth to "learn by doing," and "make the best better."

NC State and N.C. A&T University Cooperative Extension coordinate 4-H programs statewide.

During the Christmas season you can give the gift of food to the horses at Appalachian Therapeutic Riding Center that help special people in the community.

ATRC opportunity to thank those who help without words

For many years the Appalachian Therapeutic Riding Center has benefited from the generosity of friends and families in our area.

Are you looking for a fun way to have your children make a donation during the holiday season? Do you want to help the special horses who help local kids and adults in our community?

During the Christmas season you have the opportunity to give the gift of food to the horses at Appalachian Therapeutic Riding Center.

Say Merry Christmas to a horse by purchasing a 50-pound bag of horse feed. Our horses eat Pro Elite Senior and Pro Elite Starch Wise. Fox Country Store stocks these feeds and keeps a list of donations to ATRC.

If you purchase from Fox Country Store, you will receive a thank you card from the horses at the time of purchase. Fox Country Store will contact us to pick up the feed if you wish. You may also pick up the feed yourself and deliver it to the horses personally. Call Miika at 675-5814 to arrange a delivery time.

Donated feed truly helps. Your past generosity has saved the program a lot of money. The savings have allowed ATRC to offer lots of scholarships to our riders! ATRC is grateful to be offering services in such a generous community.

Your gift is tax deductible. Please tell the clerk that you are buying feed for ATRC and ask them to write down your name so we can thank you in person. Addresses are always helpful.

Thank you from the Horses of ATRC: Spirit, Marley, Hobbs, Roscoe, Butterscotch, Midnight and Lancelot.
