I am as demoralized as any man can be. I asked for help and received almost nothing in kind. As I have stated before, America has not filled me back up in all these past 55 years of pain, hunger, fear.

It is not so much the act of extraordinary intrepidity that drives me on without exhaustion as are the bear facts: the more America punishes me, the more determined I am.

Recently, a woman approached me at a country store west of town and inquired, "Do you know God." I was at a temporary loss of words as she stared intently into my eyes. Finally, I said to her... I am a Combat Veteran. She repeated the same several more times to which I repeated... I am a Combat Veteran.

I would like to inform the population, the preachers whom know the words so well, and anyone that believes in God, just this. You don't know anything about God unless you have been the most desperate for God.

To be very honest with you, I did not return to Volunteer War Service solely to kill enemy soldiers.

The truth is, I wanted to do something good. Another extraordinary circumstance to uphold the Law of God for America (this time).

I was trying to fill up that empty place in my body. Scarred for all the experiences I had in warfare to ascertain, freedom.

On the night of 24 Oct. 1965, 63 days in country attached to the 1/9 Cav on the la Drang River my position was overrun after 3 hours of intense shoulder to shoulder with the enemy. Totally and completely surrounded. Not one soldier of my 7-man position was harmed. I believe I was chosen by God for something to come. On 18 Dec 1965, I ask for help from God. On 19 Dec 1965 I said to God, I will pay you back. I was the last man to be executed.
