“Honoring A Confederate Soldier”

Great Grandpa John Winters Gets A Headstone

John Winters was born in 1820 and died about 1907. He was in the 49th Infantry of North Carolina. He fought for our freedom, suffering pain and hardships. Great grandpa was captured by the Union Army and put in a prison camp where he was treated horribly.

He survived the war and came back home to Lincoln County, North Carolina, where his family were waiting his safe return.

Great grandpa was married to Cynthia Howell in 1843 and they had nine children. Eight of the children were born in Lincoln County and one child was born in Mitchell County after they moved to the mountains somewhere between 1865 and 1867.

I am John and Cynthia's great grandson, Ned Callahan. My grandfather was James W. their eighth child.

The one thing I wanted to do before I died was to see that great grandpa would get a headstone. I was going to buy him a regular stone but I felt like he deserved a confederate stone. I contacted the "Sons of the Confederates" and they tried to get him one through the U.S. Government, but they said I didn't have proof that he was buried there.

I had gone to the cemetery from the time that I was just a small boy, with my mother and her siblings. They had put a white rock at his grave so we would know where he was laid to rest.

"The Sons of the Confederates" said they would get him a stone, and on June 2, 2018 they brought the stone to the cemetery, and the "Daughters of the Confederates" had a headstone for great grandma Cynthia. My wife and I was there, and as they carried the stones to the graves, they did it as if they were carrying human beings. It brought tears to our eyes knowing that after a hundred plus years great grandpa would finally have a real headstone.

On Oct. 14, 2018 "The Sons of the Confederate" did a re-enactment of his burial. There were many family members present and many tears were shed.

John and Cynthia with some of their children are buried at the Malone Gouge Cemetery in Bakersville, N. C.

John Winters father's name was Benjamin Berry and his mothers name was Barbara.

Cynthia Elizabeth was born in 1821 and died in 1917. Her fathers name was William Howell and her mothers name was Edie.

John and Cynthia's children's names are Mary Jane (born 1845), Roxanne (born 1847), Martha J. (born 1850), Easter Letty (born 1852), Katherine (born 1854), twins; Thomas C. and John T. (born 1858), James W. (born 1862, my grandfather), and Irene or Cissy (born 1868, in Mitchell County).

If I have left out any names, dates or else its because I didn't have the information. If any of their family has any more dates, pictures, or any information please let me know. I would be honored to meet and get to know more of the family.

I would like to thank the "Sons and Daughters of the Confederates" of Mitchell, Avery and Yancey Counties for all their time and hard work they put in getting great grandpa John a headstone and for the stone for great grandma.

If anyone has information on the John Winters family please contact me, Ned Callahan at 828-467-0822.
