

Operation Lamb makes donations

Operation Lamb, sponsored by the local Knights of Columbus, recently presented donations to Shortbus Studio, part of Yancey Residential Services, and to Yancey County Special Olympics. Pictured: Ernie Pinto, chairman of Operation Lamb, presents the check to Shortbus Studio. "What a blessing it is to hand out donations to these worthy groups. I cannot go wrong doing God's work here on earth," Pinto said. Knights of Columbus holds fundraisers and bingo games throughout the year to fund Operation Lamb projects.

Pensacola Men's Club announces scholarships available to Mayland

Pensacola Men's Club is pleased to announce that they will award scholarships of $500 each to two students at Mountain Heritage High School.

The scholarships will assist one male and one female to further their education to Mayland Community College.

The Pensacola Men's Club helps support the community and has a monthly breakfast at Laurel Branch Baptist Fellowship Hall on the first Saturday of each month at 8 a.m.

All are welcome. A $5 donation for breakfast helps the club with its community assistance projects.

The club would like to thank the Pensacola Loving Arms Ladies Club that assists with many of their projects.

Guardian ad Litem seeking volunteers as child advocates

The NC Guardian ad Litem Program is seeking volunteer advocates to represent abused and neglected children in Yancey, Mitchell and Madison.

The next training sessions begin in March for those who would like to volunteer with this program to advocate for local children.

Participants from Mitchell and Madison counties are also strongly encouraged to participate as there are many children who still do not have a volunteer assigned to them.

If you have any questions or would like to learn more about the local Guardian ad Litem program, please call Erica Edwards at 828-682-4754 or visit volunteerforal.org.
